

Unless the Lord Builds the House

REDOUBT 8.8.8.6.6.6.6.6.6.6.6

Richard M. Walsh

Richard M. Walsh, 2005

1. Un - less the Lord_ builds the house, the la - bor-ers will toil in vain; un - less the Lord pro -
 2. Un - less we make the Lord our guide, the house is weak-ened from in - side; un - less the Lord pro -
 Then let us tune our hearts to praise;_ let us hum - bly serve al - ways, ev - er watch-ing
 Then let us tru - ly be trans-formed, and let us seek a world re-born; let love that we our -

6 1. 2.
 vides the light, the watch-men will be foiled.
 vides the plan, the house is built on sand. Let us, faith pro - fess - ing, God's free grace pos - for the guid-ance of the Lord our God. shown. In one bo - dy__ seek - ing, God's own bless ings selves have known to all the world be sess - ing, make a choice, strong in voice, our minds and hearts as one. Let us all to - reap - ing, hand-in-hand, hum-bly stand-ing, thirst- ing_ for God's way; o - pen to God's_

13

19
 geth - er then seek the Lord's di - rec - tion: day by day, let us pray, "Thy will on_earth be done."
 woo - ing;_ learn-ing mixed with do - ing; with thy help, God, we ded - i - cate our lives to - day.